June 13, 2025

This was a 2014 Residency at the Dragons Egg.

Participants: Misa Miele Mandigo Kelly, Trina Mannino, Joanna Nobbe.
We went on to perform this in New York, which required a whirlwind performance trip from Santa Barbara to NYC.

It was the first piece of theatrical work where I came out with direct storytelling of the experience. It is a sharp contrast from my first theatrical work, in 1996, which told things in deep and layered metaphor.
